

The image displays four architectural drawings of a yacht, oriented vertically with the bow at the top. The top drawing is a side elevation showing the yacht's sleek, white hull, a black stripe along the waterline, and a series of portholes. The second drawing is a deck plan, showing the layout of the upper deck with various seating areas, a central table, and a swim platform. The third drawing is another deck plan, showing the layout of the lower deck with a large central lounge area, a dining area, and a swim platform. The bottom drawing is a detailed interior floor plan, showing the layout of the yacht's interior spaces, including a large central lounge area, a dining area, a kitchen, and several staterooms. The drawings are color-coded to represent different materials and furniture, and include various annotations and dimensions.
